TODAY'S BIBLE STUDY & MEDITATION

KEY IDEAS: Do I recognize that I have a unique honor since I can serve and work directly with God? Do I see myself as God sees me, as one He has given a closer relationship to Himself than the one enjoyed by an Old Testament priest? Am I squandering the opportunity God has given me by focusing on trivial things?

1 God was the inheritance of the Levites (the priestly class) — Joshua 13:33
But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave not any inheritance: the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as he said unto them.

How could the Levite's inheritance be superior since they received no land?

Since I now have the honor of serving God closely, what can I praise Him for?

2 I am God's heir through Christ — Galatians 4:7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

If God is over all things, and I am an heir of God, what will I inherit?

Why does the enemy want me to think that he is over me and controls me?

3 I am to seek wisdom in order to utilize an inheritance — Ecclesiastes 7:11
Wisdom is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to them that see the sun.

In what ways can I waste and squander my spiritual inheritance in Christ?

Why does a person with a substantial inheritance need wisdom?

Spirit of Glory, how do you want to apply these verses in my life today?
