TODAY'S BIBLE STUDY & MEDITATION

KEY IDEAS: Do I believe that God is always right, just, correct, fair and proper in His dealings with me? Do I see myself as God sees me, as one that has been made right with Him through Jesus Christ? Are areas of my life influenced by what is inappropriate and evil? Am I seeking to always do what is right?

1 Righteousness is God's possession — Daniel 9:7 O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

What hope is found in knowing that God does what is true, correct and right?

What examples of God's judgment and fair treatment can I praise Him for?

2 I am righteous (I am justified) in God's sight — Isaiah 53:11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

According to this verse, how am I made right with God -- without sin?

What advantage is it to the devil if I am uncertain about being right with God?

3 I am to surround my life with righteousness (that which is just, correct and proper) — Ephesians 6:14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness...

What areas of my life are still influenced by what is unjust and improper?

What steps do I need to take to do what is right, just, correct, and proper?

Holy Spirit, how do you want to apply these verses in my life today?
